Spread the word! Sign up to work! Come out and have fun!

Sign-up sheets will circulate again at the July membership meeting for CPPC's Hot Dog-Ust Day Car Show on August 11.

By every measure, we're ahead of where we were last year: more scholarship money, more advance registration, more raffle donations, more things in the goodie bags, more of the high-dollar special raffles. Community response has been stellar.

July's guest speaker is from Habitat for Humanity

Guest Speaker for July Membership meeting will be Cassie Punnett from Habitat for Humanity.

"Habitat for Humanity or simply Habitat, is an international, non-governmental, and nonprofit organization, which was founded in 1976. Habitat has been devoted to building "simple, decent, and affordable" housing, a self-described "Christian housing ministry," and has addressed the issues of poverty housing all over the world." (from Wikipedia)

There are only a few things left to do:

- Publicize like crazy! Spread the word through social media, personal emails, and word of mouth!
- Help set up on Friday, August 10: Tents go up, tables are put in place, and supplies are coordinated on Friday, beginning at 10:00AM. There will be pizza for lunch for those who come out to help. We'll have security in place overnight.
- Sign up for one or more jobs at the show. When setup is over, maybe you can help with judging, or see how things look at the hot-dog booth. We're making a big deal of the farewell experience – handing out bottled water as our guests leave the field – so try to be available for that.
- Remember we're the hosts. Meet, greet, schmooze – go out of your way to make our guests feel welcome.

It's going to be important to let every guest know that this is our last event on the Clackamas Community College campus, and that we'll be back in June at Clackamette Park next year.

There's probably still time to get out to Woodburn for the Mopar Nationals!

Sunday, July 22, is the date for one of our region's biggest Mopar events – the Mopar Nationals at Woodburn Drag Strip.

It's a combination swap meet, drag race, and car show. Dave Benfield and Lloyd Schulz organize a caravan of CPPC members each year (info went out to club members by email blast) and it's always on the club calendar (page 3 of this newsletter).

The Steering Column, A Message from the President

Greetings once again to all.

Has it been hot or what? It is only mid way through July and thermometer seems to be stuck in the 90's day after day. The only good thing is there is any, the humidity has been pretty low.

Despite the heat Donna and I ventured out on Saturday for the Donald Hazel Nut Festival and Car Show in our '35 Ply Convertible. Gary Rusher also ventured out in his '30 Ply Business Coupe, Randy & Pam Ely, Robin Will, Lorraine Griffey and Carry Catlow join in also. A good time was had by all, nice parade, good food and live music. I had hoped to see more of you, but maybe you were keeping cool somewhere.

Donna and I found with a little preparation like: a well soaked neck cooler, freezing our water bottles the night before, having an umbrella, sun screen and having Gary Rusher bring his 10' x 10' pop up tent makes a hot summer day fairly comfortable, oh and leaving a little early helps too. Hope to see more of you at upcoming club events this summer.

The CPPC Cruise-In, just 3 weeks away. As details are pulling together, with major sponsors donations growing daily, 30 trophy sponsors, 30 plus goodie bag items, and 145 raffle prizes, 20 special raffle items coming in, things are looking great. Thank you to all of you how have taken the time to help make this event a success.

There is only a little time to help get more donations and bring them to the show when you come. Don't forget to get your car registered for the show, you can do it on-line or download a copy from the website. A way to also contribute would be, make a check earmarked for the Clackamas Community College Automotive Refinishing Scholarship.

I am excited to be going to the POC Grand National Meet, July 24-28, in Northville, Michigan, celebrating the 90th Anniversary of Plymouth. Jim Wheat our Board Secretary, will be flying in with me. Also going are Phil and Rose Ann Hall will meet us there; as they are driving their 1954 Ply Belvedere 4DR Sedan. We all hope to help advocate for the Cascade Pacific Region, sharing some of our secrets for our club's successes. I will have pictures and write-up to put on the website, to share.

I look forward to hearing from you about your cars and see you at upcoming club events. Check the website and newsletter for event details.

Help to make a difference in our club.

Mike Bade

Buying and Restoring a Classic Car

By Phil Lapin / Technical Coordinator

Part 3 of a Series - Restorations - Work Space, Tools, Jobbing out Work, Time Investment

Work Space! If you plan on doing any type of restoration, or even serious maintenance, a decent place to work is essential. For many people, this is a garage of some size. For the more fortunate, an actual shop may be the choice. In any case, the more space the better.

Family Support and Commitment. If you plan on using a garage, what is parked in there now? If it is one or two family cars - pretty much expect to have at least one of them parked outside. Spouses, kids and other close relatives need to be on board with these projects.

Creature Comforts. I use my 2 car garage for lots of projects and purposes. Here in the Northwest, that means considering both cold and hot working conditions. I installed an overhead space heater years ago. I also installed a used window air conditioner which I had.

Tools. You will do nothing but get frustrated unless you have good quality tools, and a variety to cover most situations. A tool chest to store them in is also essential. Although perhaps not a "tool" by definition - a solid workbench is necessary, and with good lighting over it. Your workbench should be outfitted with a sturdy vise. Tool basics will include a socket set with regular and deep sockets, combination wrenches, breaker bars, a good torque wrench plus screw drivers, adjustable wrenches and "vise grips".

Tire shaving, truing helps solve vibration problems on Bade '30 coupe

By Mike Bade

I recently found a solution to my problem that has been going on for almost a couple of years with my radial tires.

I have a '30 Plymouth Coupe street rod and went from wide-whitewall tires you could buy anywhere to the new Coker bias-look radial tires. I assumed that the tires were going to make my car run smooth.

That didn't happen, and repeated checks of balance, air pressure, etc. said there was nothing wrong.

I went to get the car alignment checked and the technician noticed the tires were out of round and anything he did might not solve my problem.

Eventually, I called Coker tire, they had me get the tires Road Force Checked to see how far out of round they were. They were out of tolerance, like I thought and Coker did take them back finally.

The replacement Cokers - long story short - were just as bad.

I had heard of shaving & truing tires, and I located a shop in North Portland's Kenton neighborhood, called A-N-T Tire 8131 N. Interstate Ave, Portland, Oregon. It turns out that they do a lot of this kind of tire repair. Their phone number is 503-236-2106, they are open Monday through Thursday.

The man at A-N-T Tire, said he just assumes the tires need to be shaved or trued and he always performs this operation on his own tires. The cost was $45.00 for the tire shaving/truing and rebalancing.

I did a test drive and the difference was dramatic, the vibration was almost all gone.

I'm going to give my rear tires the same treatment, and in the end I will have what I had wanted from the get go, smooth running tires for my beloved street rod as I drive streets and highways.

Online paint database helps with color research

Gary Rusher just found a comprehensive auto paint resource online, and he's sharing it with his friends in CPPC.

If you want to know what colors are correct for the year of car you own, and you need the paint codes, or if you just want to look at 30 different shades of red, this incredibly detailed site probably has what you need. Be prepared to spend some time with it.

Surprise dinner event, small-town fun fill July calendar

ABOVE: It's tough to sneak something past Bill & Dolores Call, but by enlisting the help of their children, CPPC's board was able to surprise them at dinner at the Stone Cliff Inn in Carver on July 15. The dinner was a way to say thanks: Bill was the founder of CPPC; Dolores has been treasurer since the beginning; the CPPC board meets at Bill's Place, and the Call family is generous in participation and financial support.

RIGHT: D. J. Freeman entered both of his Plymouths in the Philomath Frolic Parade on July 14. The 1938 business coupe is familiar to CPPC members; the 1937 sedan, a fairly recent garage find, will be less so. Drivers were: daughter Anna Freeman, at the wheel of the '37, above, with grandson Jon in the back seat (start them in the hobby while they're young!), and Laura Freeman, below, driving the family's familiar blue '38 coupe. Both cars needed help on the parade route – the '37 overheated and stopped (sounds like vapor lock), and the '38 required a jump start midway. In each case, the cars were able to rejoin and finish what was a fairly long parade, and the Freemans took home a blue ribbon for their entry.

MAYFLOWERS

The Mayflowers' entire purpose is to get out and visit interesting people and places in the Pacific Northwest. Everyone is welcome to join in.

Mayflowers will visit Swan Island Dahlias on August 30

By Tom Nachand

On Thursday, August 30, Kris & Tom Nachand are hosting the Mayflower visit to the Swan Island Dahlia Farms in Canby. The address is 995 N.W. 22nd Avenue, Canby, Oregon 97013.

There is free parking on site. Meet at 10 AM in front of the gift shop. Google "Swan Island Dahlias" and click on the "visit us" tab for directions if needed.

There are nearly forty acres of color to stroll through but every variety is in a display garden before getting to the main fields.

Lunch is at Biscuits Cafe on the east side of Highway 99 in the Fred Meyer Shopping Center, 1477 S.E. 1st Avenue, Canby, Oregon

Maps available when signing up at the next CPPC meeting.

On June 20 Mayflowers went to Water Pollution Control facility

On Wednesday, June 20th The Mayflowers took a tour of the Tri City Water Pollution Control Plant (TCWPCC). 10 people attended. This Clackamas County facility provides retail sanitary sewage treatment service to the three cities of Oregon City, West Linn, and Gladstone. It also provides, by Intergovernmental Agreement, wholesale sanitary sewage treatment service to parts of Clackamas County Service District #1. Two unexpected points of interest were, first, parts of the tunnel system were used a few years ago in the filming of the TV show the Librarians starring Noah Wyle, and second, the "toy" collection in the bar screening area (ask someone who went).

Streamliners Exhibit

WHETHER DESIGNERS INCORPORATED STREAMLINING INTO THEIR DESIGNS as a matter of functionality or artistic beauty, there is no mistaking the signature appearances of this style. The Portland Art Museum celebrates these bold designs with its "The Shape of Speed: Streamlined Automobiles and Motorcycles, 1930-1942" exhibit. The display runs June 16-September 16. Among the classic streamliners shown will be the Stout Scarab, Aircarobile, Cord 812 SC sedan, Zephyr, Imperial Airliner, and a sharknose from Graham-Paige, among many other examples from around the world. The museum is located in downtown Portland, Oregon. Be sure to visit www.portlandartmuseum.org for operating hours and admission fees.

Mark August 2 on your calendar – it's First Thursday, and admission to Portland Art Museum will be free after 5:00PM. Mike and Donna Bade are planning a visit to The Shape of Speed streamliners exhibit.

Hammers, punches, wire brushes and chisels should also be available.

Depending upon the extent of restoration, you may also need a "cherry picker" hoist to pull out an engine, a transmission jack, an engine stand and a hydraulic press. Most of these tools are available to CPPC members through the Technical Committee (or members may allow you to use theirs).

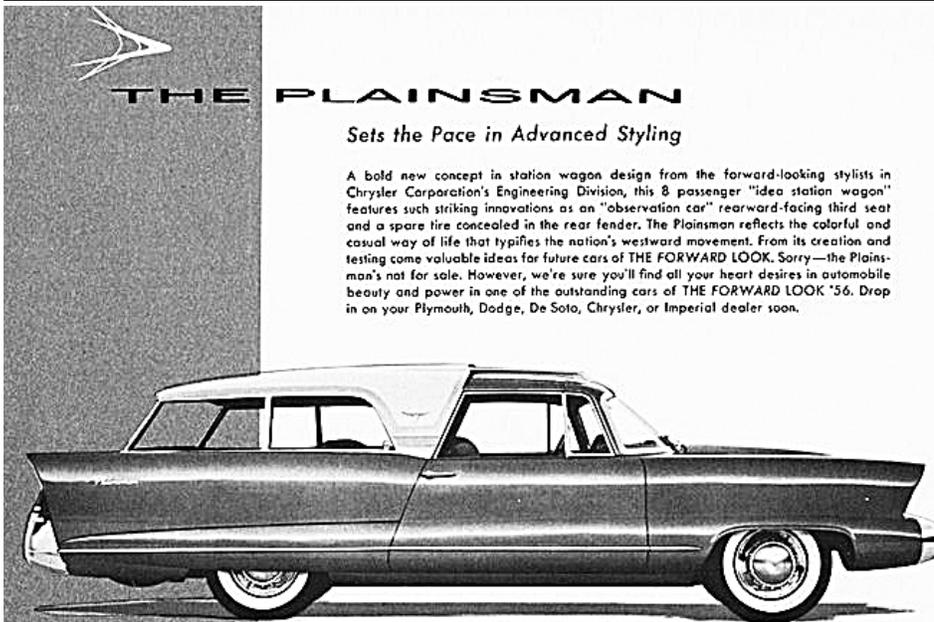

Painting equipment may or may not be necessary depending upon what you plan on doing.

Cleaning and polishing parts is another area where equipment may be needed. Parts cleaning (grease and dirt related) can be done using a metal tub and wire brushes.

Subcontracting work out. There are many tasks involved in a restoration which can be subcontracted out. The balance is between costs, budget, your skill sets and time.

This is an abbreviated version of the full detailed article, which can be found in the Tech Committee pages of the CPPC Website.
